Readings (Feb. 09, 2020) 5TH SUNDAY ORD. TIME

Isaiah 58:7-10 (In the work of justice, light shall break through darkness.)

1 Corinthians 2:1-5 (Paul shows that he came to Corinth preaching Christ crucified.)

Matthew 5:13-16 (Jesus teaches that his disciples are to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world.)

Background on the Gospel Reading

Following upon the teaching of the Beatitudes, Jesus uses the now familiar metaphors of salt and light to describe the life of discipleship. We take salt and light for granted in our society, but these commodities were more precious in ancient cultures. Just as now, salt was used in Jesus' time for flavoring, as a preservative, and as a healing agent. Similarly, the widespread use of electricity in the modern world makes us less aware of the value and importance of light in our lives. Still, our familiarity with this passage from Matthew's Gospel speaks well to the abiding power of the imagery that Jesus presented. Jesus' call to be salt for the earth and light for the world powerfully states our mission as Church and as Christians. Our commitment to social justice flows from the exhortation that Jesus gives us in today's Gospel. Some of the activities that this commitment leads us to are given more concrete expression as the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. When we feed the hungry, clothe the naked, console those who mourn, and so on, we show ourselves to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world. When we do these things with the community of faith, the Church, we are indeed acting as “a city set on a mountain” that cannot be hidden!

Family Connection

The widespread use of electricity in our society may make us less aware of the value and importance of light. To re-engage with the power of the metaphor that Jesus offers, gather your family in a darkened room. Bring only one flashlight.

Sit together for a minute and consider what you are able to do and see in so little light. You might try opening the Bible to see whether you can read today’s Gospel. Turn on the flashlight and experiment to see how one might use it to achieve the greatest amount of light. Then read today’s Gospel by the light of the flashlight. Ask everyone to consider what it means to say that Christians are to be the light of the world. How might your family act in a way that is a light for others, a light that is worthy to put on a lamp stand? Choose one thing that your family will do this week to show that you are the light of the world. You might choose to participate in an activity that your parish sponsors, such as help with a food pantry. Pray together by singing “This Little Light of Mine.”

CATECHISM IN A YEAR**

117. Who is responsible for the death of Jesus? The passion and death of Jesus cannot be imputed indiscriminately either to all the Jews that were living at that time or to their descendants. Every single sinner, that is, every human being is really the cause and the instrument of the sufferings of the Redeemer; and the greater blame in this respect falls on those above all who are Christians and who the more often fall into sin or delight in their vices.

118. Why was the death of Jesus part of God's plan? To reconcile to himself all who were destined to die because of sin God took the loving initiative of sending his Son that he might give himself up for sinners. Proclaimed in the Old Testament, especially at the sacrifice of the Suffering Servant, the death of Jesus came about "in accordance with the Scriptures".

ANGER THERAPHY CORNER

23. Ask yourself if the way you now feel reminds you of how you felt before. Recall the circumstances that surrounded your past anger. Anger can open a door to the past, a door through which you can enter and bring healing to old, unresolved issues.

24. As a child, you were probably not equipped to deal with your anger or even allowed to express it. Yet, if you were abused or mistreated or your boundaries violated, if you were not allowed to fully be and express your unique self, then your spirit was broken. The anger you felt was a healthy response. Allow the child within you to remember and to experience that anger now. (to be continued)

Kindly bring something to share with us.

- BLESSING OF THROATS after all Masses

The formula for the blessing is: Through the intercession of St. Blaise, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness. In the name of the Father.....

Feb. 05 - CENTRAL DEANERY Meeting (Minden)

Feb. 26 - ASH WEDNESDAY

Lent is a time for penance and repentance, for almsgiving and prayer, for working to change attitudes that are not pleasing to God.

Sunday missals 2020 are now available at the entrance of the church. Purchase now a copy for yourself or for someone dear to you as a gift.

Remember to bring a couple of non-perishable food item to church as donations to our local food bank. Let’s feed the hungry this way.

THE POPE SPEAKS

“We Are the Simple Instruments of God” It is urgently necessary to find new forms and new ways to ensure that God’s grace may touch the heart of every man and of every woman and lead them to him. We are all simple but important instruments of his; we have not received the gift of faith to keep it hidden but rather to spread it so that it can illumine a great many of our brethren on their journey.

POPE’S FEBRUARY PRAYER INTENTION: “Listen to the Migrants’ Cries. We pray that the cries of our migrant brothers and sisters, victims of criminal trafficking, may be heard and considered.

SAINTS’ CORNER

“You aspire to great things? Begin with little ones.” St. Augustine

“A person is an entity of a sort to which the only proper and adequate way to relate is love.” St. John Paul II

“ He will provide the ways and the means, such as you could never have imagined. Leave it all to him, let go of yourself.” St. Catherine of Sienna
