John 20:19-23

Background on the Gospel Reading

The season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the feast of Pentecost. On Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem; this event marks the beginning of the Church. The story of Pentecost is found in the Acts of the Apostles, today's first reading. The account in today's Gospel, taken from the Gospel of John, also recounts how Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. There is no need to try to reconcile these two accounts to each other. It is enough to know that, after his death, Jesus fulfilled his promise to send to his disciples a helper, an advocate, who would enable them to be his witnesses throughout the world. We previously heard today's Gospel on the second Sunday of Easter. At that time, we also heard the passage that follows, which describes Jesus' appearance to Thomas. In that context, we were led to reflect on belief and unbelief. In the context of the feast of Pentecost, this reading reminds us about the integral connection between the gifts of peace and forgiveness and the action of the Holy Spirit. Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace. Jesus then commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." As he breathes the Holy Spirit upon them, Jesus sends his disciples to continue his work of reconciliation through the forgiveness of sins. This Gospel reminds us that the Church is called to be a reconciling presence in the world. This reconciling presence of Christ is celebrated in the Church's sacramental life. In the Sacrament of Baptism, we are washed clean from sin and become a new creation in Christ. In the Sacrament of Penance, the Church celebrates the mercy of God in forgiving sins. This reconciling presence is also to be a way of life for Christians. In situations of conflict, we are to be agents of peace and harmony among people.

CATECHISM IN A YEAR 25. How does man respond to God who reveals himself? Sustained by divine grace, we respond to God with the obedience of faith, which means the full surrender of ourselves to God and the acceptance of his truth insofar as it is guaranteed by the One who is Truth itself.

26. Who are the principle witnesses of the obedience of faith in the Sacred Scriptures? There are many such witnesses, two in particular: one is Abraham who when put to the test "believed in God" (Romans 4:3) and always obeyed his call. For this reason he is called "the Father of all who believe" (Romans 4:11-18). The other is the Virgin Mary who, throughout her entire life, embodied in a perfect way the obedience of faith: "Let it be done to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38).

*NEW FURNACE FOR CHURCH AND RECTORY. The heating system we have now in Cardiff has been installed since 1958. Due to the age, cost and insurance we must upgrade the system from oil to propane. We need to raise approximately $25,000.00 for its installation. There will be second collection starting on June 15/16 weekend until the last weekend of August .If you wish to use an envelop for tax purposes they are available at the back of the church. I humbly encourage everyone to pray over and consider if this project is worth your support. Thank you for your kind consideration and generosity. God bless you. frvic

OUR CONGRATULATIONS TO Deacon John & Susan Cannon on their 50th wedding anniversary celebration last week.

May 14, 2019

Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Diocese of Peterborough,

This past winter, we celebrated Funeral Masses for two of our priests, one week apart. Both priests gave long and faithful service to the church in our diocese; and both were able to live with security and dignity in their retirement years thanks to the support they received from our Priest Benefit Fund. After the years of a priest's active service, we want to know that he is cared for and can live with the assurance that his needs will be met.

The annual parish collection is a primary way for us to ensure that our Priest Benefit Fund is financially sound, able to meet the needs of our senior clergy. I was gratified by your generosity at last year's appeal and heartened to see that it even surpassed previous years. That is a sign of your concern and appreciation for the priests who serve you with such dedication. With your help, we are on track to address the liability in that fund, thus guaranteeing that it will endure in the future and be able to care for the priests of our Diocese as they enter retirement.

Our Annual Appeal for the Priest Benefit Fund will take place on Sunday, June 9th, and your envelope may be submitted even after that. Donations may also be made online at our Diocesan website. I am grateful for your ongoing generosity to this appeal which is so crucial to the life of the Church in the Diocese of Peterborough. On behalf of all our priests—retired, preparing for retirement, or still a long way from it—I offer your our sincere thanks and our prayers. Yours in Christ,

Most reverend Daniel J. Miehm, D.D. Bishop of Peterborough
