Readings (June 14, 2020) CORPUS CHRISTI

Deuteronomy 8:2-3,14b-16a (Moses tells the people to remember how God delivered them from slavery in Egypt).

1 Corinthians 10:16-17 (Though many, we are one body when we partake of the Body and Blood of Christ.)

John 6:51-58 (Jesus says, "I am the living bread.")

Background on the Gospel Reading

This Sunday we celebrate a second solemnity during this period of Ordinary Time in the liturgical calendar. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This day was once called Corpus Christi, which is Latin for "Body of Christ." In the revised Lectionary the name for this day is expanded to reflect more completely our Eucharistic theology. Today's Gospel is taken from the Gospel according to John. The reading is part of a discourse between Jesus and a crowd of Jews. The discourse comes shortly after the miracle of Jesus' multiplication of the loaves and fishes. In John's Gospel, miracles such as this are identified as "signs" through which people come to believe that Jesus is the Son of God. These signs are followed by dialogue, or discourse that interprets and explains the miracle. In John's Gospel, Jesus' multiplication of the loaves is said to have occurred near Passover, thus linking it to the Exodus story and God's saving action toward the Israelites. Having seen Jesus multiply the loaves and fishes, the crowd pursues him, perhaps seeking more food but also looking for another sign. Jesus tells the crowd that he is the bread of life. He explains that just as God gave the Israelites manna to sustain them in the desert, so now God has sent new manna that will give eternal life. It is in this context that Jesus repeats those words in today's Gospel and tells them again that he is the living bread that came down from heaven. Jesus' words are not well understood by the crowd; they argue that Jesus is not from heaven but born of Mary and Joseph. The crowd also has trouble understanding how Jesus could give them his flesh to eat. Jesus tells them that when they eat his flesh and drink his blood, they will remain forever connected to him. These are difficult words, but they are important because they seek to show us our intimate connection with Jesus. This is the mystery that is at the heart of our Eucharistic theology. In the elements of bread and wine, Jesus' Body and Blood are truly present. When we share in the Body and Blood of Christ, Jesus himself comes to dwell within us. This communion with the Lord makes us one body, brings us eternal life, and sends us forth to be Christ's Body in the world.-

Family Connection

Our faith teaches us that when we gather to celebrate Mass, Jesus is present to us. The bread and wine truly become the Body and Blood of Christ. This is what we mean by the word transubstantiation: Jesus makes himself present to all who receive the Body and Blood of Christ.

If there are children in your family who have already celebrated their First Holy Communion, invite them to share their memories of this special day. If there are family photos taken on this occasion, bring them out and share them together. Adults in the family may also share memories or photos that they have of their First Communion. Then read together today's Gospel, John 6:51-58. Reflect together on what Jesus means when he calls himself the "living bread." Recall that every time we receive the Eucharist, Jesus keeps the promise he made in today's Gospel—those who eat his flesh and drink his blood will remain forever connected to him. Perhaps family members can share what it means for them to receive Jesus in the Eucharist. Together thank God for this gift of Holy Communion. Pray together the Lord's Prayer or today's Psalm.

7 PRAYERS FROM PSALMS to CALM FEAR and ANXIETY

PSALM 23—This beautiful Psalm reminds us that God is our constant, caring Shepherd and faithful guide. In Him alone do we have hope, both in this life and through eternity:

"The Lord is my shepherd. I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

Dear God, thank you that you are our good Shepherd and we can trust you with our lives. We're so grateful for your leadership and Sovereignty, for your guidance and care in all our days. Thank you that you restore our souls, give us peace, and bring us hope in all our tomorrows. Your protection and strength surround us like a shield and we never have to fear. Thank you for your goodness and love that follows after us, chases us even when we're unaware. In you alone is true rest and peace. We praise you for the assurance that we will dwell with you forever. In Jesus' Name. Amen. (to be continued)

INSPIRATION FROM HENRI NOUWEN

"Peace in a Hostile World"

Come now...says the Lord: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be like snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool. Isaiah 1:18

Sometimes, the bad news of the world can make it hard to hold on to hope. Oftentimes, our struggle is intensified when we have enough self-knowledge to understand that our own sins have contributed to the sad state of affairs. How can we make a difference when we can't even get our own house in order? We find the answer when we turn our hearts over to Christ. When we make Christ's heart our heart, when we see with his eyes and act with his hands, we can find peace. We can find meaning. And we can make a real difference by building the kingdom of God here and now.

Lord, give us the courage to live for you in this world, even when my sins seem to hold me back. Grant me confidence in your mercy. Amen.

"The Church is like a great ship being pounded by the waves of life's different stresses. Our duty is not to abandon ship, but to keep her on her course." St. Boniface

TECHNOLOGY ISN'T LIFE

I had spent an hour in the bank with my dad, as he had to transfer some money. I couldn't resist myself & asked..."Dad, why don't we activate your internet banking?" "Why would I do that?" He asked..."Well, then you won't have to spend an hour here for things like transfer. You can even do your shopping online. Everything will be so easy!" I was so excited about initiating him into the world of Net banking. He asked "If I do that, I won't have to step out of the house?" "Yes, yes"! I said. I told him how even grocery can be delivered at door now and how Amazon delivers everything! His answer left me tongue-tied. He said "Since I entered this bank today, I have met four of my friends, I have chatted a while with the staff who know me very well by now. You know I am alone...this is the company that I need. I like to get ready and come to the bank. I have enough time, it is the physical touch that I crave. Two years back I got sick, The store owner from whom I buy fruits, came to see me and sat by my bedside and cried. When your Mom fell down few days back while on her morning walk. Our local grocer saw her and immediately got his car to rush her home as he knows where I live. Would I have that 'human' touch if everything became online? Why would I want everything delivered to me and force me to interact with just my computer? I like to know the person that I'm dealing with and not just the 'seller'. It creates bonds of Relationships. Does Amazon deliver all this as well?" Technology isn't life.. Spend time with people .. Not with devices...What do you think?

* The annual pilgrimage to the Shrine of St. Ann in CORMAC which traditionally would have been held on the Sunday, JULY 26th with the Triduum taking place the week before, WILL NOT BE TAKING PLACE DURING THIS YEAR, 2020. With the state of emergency in effect in Ontario it has been asked that all public church events be cancelled until further notice.
