Readings Next Week (July 19, 2020) 16th SUNDAY

Wisdom 12:13,16-19 (God has shown himself to be a God of justice and mercy.)

Romans 8:26-27 (The Spirit intercedes for us with God.)

Matthew 13:24-43 (shorter form: Matthew 13:24-30)

Jesus offers parables about the Kingdom of Heaven and explains them to his disciples.

Background on the Gospel Reading

In today's Gospel, Jesus offers three parables to describe the Kingdom of Heaven. He also explains why he speaks to the crowds in parables and interprets the parable of the sower for the disciples. This reading is a continuation of Jesus' discourse that we began reading last Sunday. All three parables use commonplace experiences to describe aspects of the Kingdom of Heaven. The first parable is longer and more detailed than the next two, and it alerts us to the two-fold reality of the Kingdom of Heaven. The beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven can be found in this world. The fruition of the Kingdom of Heaven, however, will not be realized until the final judgment. In the meantime, as Jesus' explanation to the disciples cautions, any effort to judge the progress of the Kingdom of Heaven is premature. Only God, in the final judgment, will distinguish the fruit of the Kingdom of Heaven and offer its reward.

The second and third parables call to our attention the abundance that will result from the small beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven. Just as a mustard seed—the smallest of all seeds—will become a large bush, so too God will bring his Kingdom to full bloom. As a small amount of yeast will leaven the entire batch of bread, so too God will bring about the expansion of his Kingdom. In each case the image is of the superabundance that God brings out of even the smallest of signs of the Kingdom. Contained within these parables are words of caution as well as words of consolation. In the parable of the sower we are warned against judging others. To judge and uproot the “weeds” prematurely will harm the wheat; final judgment rests with God. In the parables of the mustard seed and the yeast, we are consoled by the message that God can work wonders and produce abundance from even the smallest beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Parishes and Missions in the HALIBURTON KAWARTHA PINERIDGE HEALTH UNIT PASTORAL MANAGEMENT INFORMATION FOR PRIESTS These parishes and missions fall under the Haliburton Kawartha Pineridge Health Unit. St. Mary Parish, Lindsay Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, Cardiff Our Lady of Mercy Parish, Port Hope Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish, Hastings St. Mary Parish, Grafton Our Lady Queen of Peace/ St. Aloysius Parishes, Fenelon Falls St. John Parish, Kirkfield St. Luke Parish, Downeyville St. Michael Parish, Cobourg Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish, Campbellford

WEARING A FACE MASK AT THE PARISH The HALIBURTON KAWARTHA PINERIDGE HEALTH UNIT has ordered that the wearing non-medical masks or face coverings will be required in many indoor public spaces – commercial establishments and businesses - in the Haliburton, Kawartha, Pineridge Region as of Monday, July 13, 2020. The Health Unit Order has been issued under the authority of Ontario Regulation 263/20 under the provincial Emergency Management and Civil Protection Act (EMCPA). The Worship Safe reopening plan for the Diocese of Peterborough follows the directives of the Health Unit but is not responsible for these Orders or for their enforcement unless it is stipulated in the Order.

2 The Order from the Durham Health Unit applies to indoor public spaces and does not apply to places of worship. The Diocese of Peterborough contacted the Haliburton, Kawartha, Pineridge Health Unit directly and a clarification and a rationale were provided. RATIONALE Other healthcare precautions and restrictions apply to places of worship. These provisions are more stringent restrictions than those imposed on commercial establishments – namely the 30% capacity restriction which supports physical distancing. While face masks in churches are strongly encouraged by the Haliburton, Kawartha, Pineridge Health Unit, they are not mandatory. Worship Safe, the reopening plan, states that the use of face masks is strongly encouraged.

WEARING A FACE MASK AT A FUNERAL The Bereavement Authority of Ontario issued a Registrar’s Directive that a face covering must be worn at a funeral in the Haliburton, Kawartha, Pineridge Region as of Wednesday, July 8th (yesterday). Again, the Worship Safe reopening plan for the Diocese of Peterborough follows the directives of the Bereavement Authority of Ontario but is not responsible for these directives or for their enforcement unless it is stipulated in the directive. PRIESTS Priests do not need to wear masks in the sanctuary while celebrating Mass but should ensure they are wearing a mask when distributing Holy Communion and any other setting where they are in close proximity (less than 2m/6 ft.) to parishioners.

LECTORS Lectors should remove masks to proclaim the Word of God. EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF COMMUNION Extraordinary Ministers of Communion must wear a face covering/mask when distributing Holy Communion.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FUNERAL HOME PERSONNEL Funeral Home personnel are aware of the Registrar’s Directive and may arrive at the parish with their own supply of face masks or face coverings. If not, kindly ensure that the staff from the Funeral Home has access to the parish’s supply of face coverings / face masks so that those mourners who forget their face covering/ face mask are provided with one. The parish may provide disposable face coverings/masks or homemade masks that must be cleaned after each use.

HALIBURTON KAWARTHA PINERIDGE HEALTH UNIT ORDER Use of Non-Medical Masks and Face Coverings in Commercial Establishments To prevent the spread of COVID-19, the Haliburton, Kawartha, Pine Ridge District Health Unit is instructing that non-medical masks or face coverings be worn in many indoor public spaces in the area. This instruction takes effect at 12:01 am on July 13, 2020, and includes commercial establishments and businesses in Haliburton County, Northumberland County and the City of Kawartha Lakes. The Health Unit is issuing this under the authority of Ontario Regulation 263/20 under Ontario’s Emergency Management and Civil Protection Act. The aim of the directive is to prevent the spread of COVID-19 in this region. Website: https://www.hkpr.on.ca/news_items/7768/

7 PRAYERS FROM PSALMS TO CALM FEAR AND ANXIETY

5) PSALM 46: “GOD HOLDS THE FINAL VICTORY” No matter what we face, God holds the final victory and we can trust Him in the midst of all that may be happening around us. This Psalm calls us to live free from fear, to seek after a quiet and secure confidence in our God who alone is able to save:

“God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging...God is within her, she will not fall, God will help her at break of day..The Lord Almighty is with us, the God of Jacob is our fortress...Be still, and know that I am God, I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.”

Dear God, we long for your presence and peace again, we’re struggling with worry and fear. We trust that your power is far greater than the difficulties we’re up against today. We believe that you are mighty and that you’re bigger than this storm.I Thank you that you promise to be our refuge and strength in times of trouble. We ask you for a miracle right now and depend on you as never before. In Jesus’ Name, Amen.

The annual pilgrimage to the Shrine of St. Ann in CORMAC which traditionally would have been held on the Sunday, JULY 26th with the Triduum taking place the week before, WILL NOT BE TAKING PLACE DURING THIS YEAR, 2020. With the state of emergency in effect in Ontario it has been asked that all public church events be cancelled until further notice.

It is with great sadness that the family marks the passing of MARY PATRICIA HURTUBISE nee SLATTERY on June 30, 2020 in her 78th year. She is the beloved sister of SALLY RAYES of Apsley. May her soul through the mercy of God rest in peace!
