Readings Next week (August 04, 2019) 18th Sunday
Eccles. 1:2; 2:21-23; Col. 3:1-5,9-11; Luke 12:13-21
Background on the Gospel Reading

In Chapter 12 of Luke's Gospel, Jesus instructs his disciples and the crowd on how to be ready for the coming judgment. A crowd of many thousands has gathered to hear Jesus. At first he speaks only to the disciples, reminding them that it is not persecution they should fear but the judgment that is coming for all who do not acknowledge the Son of Man. Suddenly a man in the crowd shouts out to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me." He seems to have grown tired of Jesus speaking only to the disciples. Jesus offers the man no help. Instead he uses the question to teach what, in light of the coming judgment, life really consist of. Jesus tells the crowd a parable. A rich man's lands have yielded more crops than expected. His response is not to consider how he might share all the extra food with others but to wonder how he can possibly store it all. He has what he thinks is a brilliant idea: to tear down his present barns and build larger ones. Then he will have many things stored up for years of eating, drinking, and making merry. "You fool" is God's response to this man because that very night his life will be taken away. To whom will everything belong then, God asks. The rich man's world is small, just him and his possessions, and now he learns that he is to lose his life. What good are his possessions now? Jesus states the moral of the story. This is how it will be for everyone who stores up treasure for himself or herself but is not rich in what matters to God Centuries later St. Gregory the Great taught that when we care for the needs of the poor, we are giving them what is theirs, not ours. We are not just performing works of mercy; we are paying a debt of justice. Life does not consist in possessions but in sharing what we possess with others. The goods of the earth have been given to everyone.

CATECHISM IN A YEAR 43. What does it mean to believe in only one God? To believe in the one and only God involves coming to know his greatness and majesty. It involves living in thanksgiving and trusting always in him, even in adversity. It involves knowing the unity and true dignity of all human beings, created in his image. It involves making good use of the things which he has created.

44. What is the central mystery of Christian faith and life? The central mystery of Christian faith and life is the mystery of the Most Blessed Trinity. Christians are baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

THE NEW PROPANE GAS HEATING SYSTEM for both the church and rectory has been finally installed. The total cost is $25,664.73 including taxes. The second collection which started since June 15th until August 24/25th has reached now an initial amount of $5540.55. It's still a long way to go but I trust and count on your generous support. You may consider doing pledges, a practical and less pressure way of supporting this project. Thank you.

MANY THANKS for your generous donations designated towards the purchase of the new propane furnace in Cardiff church. The second collection for this weekend (july 20/21) amounted to $1101.40. You may consider using a special envelop marked "heating" found at the entrance of the church, so at the end of the year you will receive a charitable receipt for the purpose of personal tax deduction.

ON JULY 18 Bishop Miehm graced us with a Pastoral Visit to our mission parish of St. Mary's Chandos. After celebrating a well-attended Mass and enjoying some fellowship, he visited St. Mary's cemetery which is celebrating its 150th anniversary. The Bishop, Fr. Vic and Deacon John were guided by John and Anna Chapman, the restorers and administrators of the cemetery. Thanks so much to those who brought and prepared a delicious lunch for everyone to share. (Deacon John)
