Readings Next Week (August 09, 2020) 19th SUNDAY

1 Kings 19:9a,11-13a (The Lord appears to Elijah in a whisper.)

Romans 9:1-5 (Paul speaks of the blessings that have come to the Israelites.)

Matthew 14:22-33 (Jesus walks on water, and the disciples acknowledge him as the Son of God.)

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel directly follows last week's account of Jesus feeding a crowd of more than 5,000 people with just five loaves of bread and two fish. For the sake of the crowds, Jesus had postponed his time of solitude. Now, at last, Jesus finds some time for quiet and prayer. He sends his disciples ahead of him by boat, dismisses the crowds, and then withdraws to the mountain to pray. The disciples do not fare well. They struggle to weather the wind and waves, making little progress in their journey. We are reminded of a previous story in Chapter 8 of Matthew's Gospel, when Jesus calms the seas. This time, however, Jesus does not calm the seas, and the disciples do not express fear until they see Jesus walking toward them on the water. In this story it is not the storm that is feared but the sight of Jesus before them, whom they mistake for a ghost. Clues like these suggest that this story is about the disciples' growing understanding of the identity of Jesus. In continuity with last week's Gospel about the feeding of the multitude, today's Gospel is also about what the disciples' faith in Jesus will enable them to do. In last week's Gospel, when the disciples see the crowds, they ask Jesus to send the crowds away. Jesus turns the situation around, telling the disciples to feed the crowd with the provisions that they have. Both of these Gospels tell us much about ministry. Jesus calls to the disciples and calms their fears. He is not a ghost. The impulsive Peter seeks proof that the person is indeed Jesus. He asks Jesus to call him out onto the water, and Jesus grants this request. Peter's fear and doubt overtake him, however, once he is walking on the water. Jesus reaches out to Peter and saves him. When Jesus and Peter enter the boat, Matthew reports that the wind ceases, and the disciples confess that Jesus is the Son of God. Faith in Jesus will enable the disciples to do the work that Jesus has done. Peter walks on water. The five loaves and two fish feed a multitude of people. The disciples can and will participate in the work of the kingdom of heaven. When Peter fears and doubts the person of Jesus, however, he falters. Peter's example teaches us that true Christian ministry emerges from the faith that Jesus is the Messiah, God's only Son.

Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial because, having stood the test, that person will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love him. - James 1:12 12

HOW TO MAKE A HOLY HOUR

The following is a method of prayer proposed by St. Peter Julian Eymard that is rooted in the primary prayers of the Mass.

- 1) PRAYER OF ADORATION. I tell Jesus that I love Him: After placing myself in the presence of God, I clear and focus my mind, consider God's love, mercy, goodness and excellence which is the source of all graces and blessings that I have received in my life. I acknowledge and state before God in my own words and in my own way my dependency on Him for everything just like a young child depends on its mother and father for its needs—this is an act of humility. I can also reflect on the humility found in the humanity of Jesus present in the Eucharist and sacrificed in an unbloody manner at the Mass.
- 2) PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING—I thank Jesus for the blessings He has given me; I then thank God for all the blessings that He has given me; creation, His mercy and grace, Jesus Christ in the Incarnation and the Redemption, the Eucharist and those favors which we have received personally from Him—such as my Catholic faith, my life, my health, my family, my job/vocation and also the favors that I have received either directly from God or from God through others such as the Saints in Heaven or people who we know on earth.
- 3) PRAYER OF CONTRITION—I acknowledge my sins before Jesus and ask for His forgiveness and mercy: I then ask for forgiveness and also for the grace of deeper contrition/sorrow so that my mortal and venial sins and all their bad effects and dispositions, whether made through commission (what I have done) or omission (what I have failed to do) may be removed. This is an act of reparation (penance) and an act of humility that goes against my own pride and vanity, which prevents me from growing in holiness and in true love of God and love of neighbor.
- 4) PRAYER OF PETITION—I bring Jesus my needs, those of the Church and of the world: I then pray for the necessary graces to persevere in faith, hope and love until I die. I can also include a petition for the salvation of souls and for various needs, including my own, the needs and salvation of my family members, friends, fellow parishioners, co-workers, employers, enemies and the particular needs of the Church and the world. It is in this way that Jesus Himself always prays for all of us and especially at Mass.
