 Wisdom 9:13-18b; Philemon 9-10, 12-17; Luke 14:25-33
 Background on the Gospel Reading

In chapter 14 of Luke's Gospel, Jesus is speaking to people gathered at the table about the difficulties of following him. This group of people is suspicious about Jesus looking to catch him doing something wrong. Jesus speaks to them in parables, emphasizing that although there is a right way to be a disciple and enter into the kingdom of his Father, it is a difficult path to follow. Many, even some of the guests at the table, reject the invitation. So Jesus turns to the crowds and speaks to them of discipleship. Jesus explains that, when it comes to making a choice for the Kingdom of God, nothing can get in the way. When Jesus describes "hating" one's father and mother, he is not talking about feelings. Rather, he is emphasizing very strongly that choosing to be a disciple means that everything else—family, money, your own life—must come second. In Matthew's version of this story (Matthew 10:37), Jesus refers not to "hating" father or mother, but to loving them more than Jesus. Jesus makes it very clear that being a disciple is not easy. It means to bear one's own cross. These difficult sayings of Jesus are followed by two brief parables (a person constructing a tower and a king marching into battle) that make an obvious point—don't start what you cannot finish. Discipleship is difficult and is something we can commit to only if we are prepared to put the Kingdom of God before everything else.

CATECHISM IN A YEAR 54. How did God create the universe?

God created the universe freely with wisdom and love. The world is not the result of any necessity, nor of blind fate, nor of chance. God created "out of nothing" (ex nihilo) (2 Maccabees 7:28) a world which is ordered and good which he infinitely transcends. God preserves his creation in being and sustains it, giving it the capacity to act and leading it toward its fulfillment through his Son and the Holy Spirit.

55. What is divine providence? Divine Providence consists in the dispositions with which God leads his creatures toward their ultimate end. God is the sovereign Master of his own plan. To carry it out, however, he also makes use of the cooperation of his creatures. For God grants his creatures the dignity of acting on their own and of being causes for each other.

56. How do we collaborate with divine providence? While respecting our freedom, God asks us to cooperate with him and gives us the ability to do so through actions, prayers and sufferings, thus awakening in us the desire "to will and to work for his good pleasure" (Philippians 2:13).2.

.NEW PROPANE GAS HEATING SYSTEM. The total cost is $25,664.73 including taxes. August 24/25 weekend is our last day of having a second collection which fortunately reached $1126.35 bringing the total amount of $10,654.00. For all of you who have generously dug your pocket deep, for the past 11 weekends you have shown your ever faithful and constant support towards the project which I am so deeply grateful. For those who pledged and promised me to help financially I will still be counting on you and be waiting patiently for your prompt assistance.

HAVE YOU EVER ATTENDED A PARISH MISSION? What it is anyway? A Parish Mission is an excellent opportunity to invite back home those who have become alienated from the Church. If you happened to know one, kindly extend the invitation by phoning, emailing or verbally. Make them feel that they matter. The Mission is held at Our Lady of Lourdes Church. It will run from Sunday (Nov. 3) until Wednesday (Nov. 6) @ 7pm and be conducted by Redemptorist Father Eugene O'Reilly. Refreshments will follow. See you then! Mark this date on your calendar*
