THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!!!

Give a gift of a Mass for someone's birthday, wedding or death anniversaries, to someone who is ill or undergoing surgery. What better way to show your gratitude to Him than offering a Holy Mass for such intention. Kindly approach and talk to Fr. Vic after Mass. Suggested offering is $20.00 only.

Readings Next week (Sept. 22, 2019) 25th Sunday

Amos 8:4-7

Unfair business practices and injustice to the poor will be judged by God.

1 Timothy 2:1-8

Paul tells Timothy that prayer for those in authority is pleasing to God because God wills the salvation of all.

Luke 16:1-13

Jesus tells a parable about a dishonest steward who is commended for his prudence; one cannot serve both God and money.

Background on the Gospel Reading Today's Gospel sounds puzzling to contemporary readers, but it can be made less so by considering the economic system which stands behind the parable. A steward is dismissed because he is squandering his master's property. He is called dishonest because he is not serving the interests of the rich man, his employer. In response the steward, in an attempt to ensure favour for himself among the rich man's debtors, brokers repayment of the rich man's loans by foregoing the interest and fees that had been levied to line the steward's pockets. It is this action, in which the steward puts aside greed and takes the longer perspective in order to enhance his security, which is commended by the rich man.

The passage concludes with three morals for the listeners. The first exhorts the listener to be prudent about the use of wealth. Like the steward in the parable, those who would follow Jesus must put transitory affairs in proper perspective. Christians should handle the affairs of temporal life with an eye toward eternal life.

The second concerns trustworthiness. Those who can be trusted in small things can also be trusted in great things. If Christians handle money and other passing things responsibly, then they can also be trusted with the affairs of the Kingdom of God.

Finally, Jesus tells his listeners that no one can serve two masters simultaneously. God must be put ahead of money.

Please pray for the sick:

CATECHISM IN A YEAR

60. Who are the angels? The angels are purely spiritual creatures, incorporeal, invisible, immortal, and personal beings endowed with intelligence and will. They ceaselessly contemplate God face-to-face and they glorify him. They serve him and are his messengers in the accomplishment of his saving mission to all.

61. In what way are angels present in the life of the Church?

The church joins with the angels in adoring God, invokes their assistance and commemorates some of her liturgy.

"Beside each believer stands an angel as a protector and shepherd, leading him to life." (Saint Basil the Great)

NEW PROPANE GAS HEATING SYSTEM. The total cost is $25,664.73 including taxes. The second collection this weekend (Sept. 7/8) amounted to $325.00 bringing the total amount of $10,027.65. You may consider using a special envelop marked "heating" found at the entrance of the church, so at the end of the year you will receive a charitable receipt for the purpose of personal tax deduction.

HAVE YOU EVER ATTENDED A PARISH MISSION?

What it is anyway? A Parish Mission is an excellent opportunity to invite back home those who have become alienated from the Church. If you happened to know one, kindly extend the invitation by phoning, emailing or verbally. Make them feel that they matter. The Mission is held at Our Lady of Lourdes Church. It will run from Sunday (Nov. 3) until Wednesday (Nov. 6) @ 7pm and be conducted by Redemptorist Father Eugene O'Reilly. Refreshments will follow. See you then! Mark this date on your calendar

FATHER EUGENE O'REILLY C.Ss.R.

Affectionately known as "Red" Fr. O'Reilly was born in Monaghan, Ireland in 1944. He came to Canada with his family and later joined the Redemptorists. Upon graduating with a B.A. from the University of Windsor, he pursued his theological studies in France and Montreal and was ordained in 1972. Since 1983 he has preached Missions and retreats to parishes, teachers, School boards, clergy and religious throughout Canada and the U.S. He has also served in St. John's Newfoundland as Pastor of a large parish. Father Red completed a sabbatical year, part of which was spent at the School of Applied Theology, Berkely, California. He has a particular interest in music, and has composed a number of religious songs. Some of his music is in the Catholic Book of Worship and the Grade four and five Religion Programme in Canada. He has teamed up with other Redemptorists and together they have produced five recordings. Mission Preaching is Fr. Red's full time ministry and he brings to it a ready smile, a wonderful sense of humor and a compassionate understanding of people and the complex world in which we live.

TRUTHS TO REMEMBER : Respond with compassion when others sin and joy when they repent.
