Readings Next Week (October 18, 2020) 29th SUNDAY

Isaiah 45:1,4-6 (The Lord chooses Cyrus to subdue the nations for the sake of Israel.)

1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b (Paul greets the Thessalonians, recalling the Gospel they received.)

Matthew 22:15-21 (The Pharisees send their disciples to test Jesus with a question about taxes.)

Background on the Gospel Reading

In today's Gospel Jesus and the religious leaders in Jerusalem continue their tense exchange of questions and challenges. At this point the disciples of the Pharisees, together with the Herodians, try to entrap Jesus by their question about the payment of taxes. Matthew sets up an unusual partnership between the Pharisees and the Herodians. The Herodians were supporters of Herod Antipas, a Jewish political leader who collaborated with the Romans. Such collaboration would have required a compromised observance of the Mosaic Law. The Pharisees, on the other hand, taught scrupulous observance of the Mosaic Law and opposed Roman occupation. Herodians favored the payment of taxes; the Pharisees opposed it. The Herodians and the Pharisees approach Jesus, asking that he take sides in their dispute. If Jesus answers with the Pharisees, he shows himself to be an enemy of Rome. If he answers with the Herodians, he offends popular Jewish religious sensibilities. Jesus' response to this attempt to trap him exposes the guile of his questioners. From his first words to them, Jesus shows that he is very much aware of what they are trying to do. He asks to see a Roman coin, which is readily provided to him. It may have come from the hand of a Herodian, but the Pharisees show themselves to be quite willing to accept this compromise. Jesus has already exposed the Pharisees as hypocrites. Jesus takes his response one step further. He asks that his questioners examine the coin. Agreeing that it is Caesar's image on the coin, Jesus tells them that it must belong to Caesar. Avoiding the question of lawfulness altogether, Jesus answers their question with simple logic. Then, going further still, Jesus tells them that their obligation is to pay to God that which belongs to God. Jesus' response to the Herodians and Pharisees suggests the ethic that Christians ought to adopt. It reminds us of the importance of keeping things in their proper perspective. Do we attach ourselves to worldly things at the expense of the love and honor that we owe to God?

USED CLOTHING BIN is found in our church vicinity to receive your donation. All donations will go to help Jake's House for Children with Autism in partnership with Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Canada.

 OCTOBER IS MARIAN MONTH. I do encourage individuals and families to pray the holy rosary daily to foster our love and devotion to the Blessed Mother who intercedes for us all.

THE FUND RAISED THIS WEEK in St. Mary's Church (Chandos) had reached to $490.00 dollars in support of the church side door expansion project that will provide easy access for the handicap. Late donations are still warmly accepted. Thank you for your generous response.

*HAPPY THANKSGIVING DAY..*It is fitting for God's people to offer public thanks for all the gifts we have received. The bountiful produce of the earth is a visible sign of the many blessings God wants to shower on us through Christ. Our God also wants us to share the goods of the earth with all people.

OUR HEARTFELT CONGRATULATIONS to Allen Pearce who received the sacrament of Confirmation last Saturday at St. John Vianney Mission Church in Highland Grove.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY OCTOBER 18

At the initiative of Pope Pius XI in 1926, the second last Sunday during October became known as World Mission Sunday. Catholics throughout the world are invited to pray for and give to the missions. The collection this Sunday is organized by the Pontifical Mission Society. The fund collected assist some 1,250 mission dioceses under the responsibility of the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples. As agreed by the Holy See and the Bishops of Canada, a portion of the Canadian contributions to this collection will continue to be used until 2020 to assist six dioceses in Northern Canada which for many years had also been under the jurisdiction of the Congregation. I highly encourage and pray among all the people of God a missionary spirit, promote missionary vocations, and collaborate spiritually and financially in the Church's mission work, including support for all the dioceses in our country's northern regions.

 UPCOMING SPECIAL COLLECTIONS: There will be two (2) October PAPs (automatic withdrawals for those signed up for these special collection donations) as follows: The original, pre COVID-19, special collection for the Popes Pastoral Works was scheduled on April 15, 2020. Parishes were notified that this special collection was rescheduled by the Holy See to October 4th, 2020. POP was NOT processed or withdrawn from parishioner's bank accounts on April 15, 2020. This collection was rescheduled by the Holy See to October 4th, 2020 and will be withdrawn by POP on October 15, 2020. World Missions POP date remains unchanged from the original special collection withdrawal date of October 15, 2020. Hence the two withdrawals for parishioners on October 15th, 2020.

CATECHISM FOR A YEAR

217. What is the meaning of the word "Amen" with which we conclude our profession of faith?
The Hebrew word "Amen", which also concludes the last book of Sacred Scripture, some of the prayers of the New Testament, and the liturgical prayers of the Church, expresses our confident and total "yes" to what we professed in the Creed, entrusting ourselves completely to him who is the definitive "Amen" (Revelation 3:14), Christ the Lord.

218. What is the liturgy?
The liturgy is the celebration of the mystery of Christ and in particular his paschal mystery. Through the exercise of the priestly office of Jesus Christ the liturgy manifests in signs and brings about the sanctification of humankind.

The public worship which is due to God is offered by the Mystical Body of Christ, that is, by its head and by its members.

WORDS OF WISDOM

The Road of Hope a gospel from prison by Cardinal Francis Xavier Nguyen Van Thuan

The saints are fools for Christ. The making of saints is far beyond the scope of this world's wisdom.

If you wish to set off on this road you must go regardless what other people say to ridicule you. The three Magi set out with the hope of meeting the Savior and they met him. Francis Xavier set out with the hope of bringing the Gospel to people and he met them. Maria Goretti set out to resist temptation with the hope of meeting our Lord, and she met him.

You must lose in order to gain, die in order to live, abandon everything in order to meet the Lord. The Magi risked both dangers and ridicule. Francis Xavier left his parents and gave up all his possessions. Maria Goretti gave up her life.

One particular four-year old prayed, "And forgive us our trash baskets as we forgive those who put trash in our baskets."
