Readings Next Week (November 01, 2020) ALL SAINTS

Revelation 7:2-4,9-14 (John describes his vision: those who have endured the trials worship the Lamb.)

1 John 3:1-3 (We are God's children now).

Matthew 5:1-12 (Jesus teaches what it means to be happy.)

Background on the Gospel Reading

Every year the Church recalls the example, witness, and prayer of the holy women and men who have been identified by the Church as Saints. These saints are more than just role models; they are family members with whom we continue to share relation, in a bond of prayer, called the Communion of Saints. Every year when we celebrate this day, the Gospel we proclaim recalls for us Jesus' teaching about happiness, the Beatitudes. We quickly note in this reading that none of those Jesus names as "blessed" or "happy" are expected . . . the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted. Jesus' blueprint for happiness reflects little of what the world might call happiness. What does Jesus mean when he uses the word "blessed?" This word is sometimes translated as "happy" or "fortunate" or "favored." In other words, Jesus is saying that divine favor is upon those who are poor, who mourn, who are persecuted. This might have been welcome and surprising news to the crowds who heard Jesus that day. The Beatitudes can be understood as a framework for Christian living. Because of this, it is natural that we proclaim this Gospel on the Feast of All Saints. Saints are people who lived the spirit of the Beatitudes as Jesus lived. On this day, we too are challenged to model our lives on the spirit and promises of the Beatitudes.

Family Connection

One of the great gifts of our Catholic tradition is remembrance of and prayer with the saints. The Church offers us an official canon, or list, of saints. On All Saints Day, we recall and pray with these saints. It is important to continue to tell these stories of saints and saintly people to our children so that they have ample models of people of faith for their own lives. Together as a family, name and tell the story of favorite saints. Together prepare a list of some of the traits that these people have in common (generosity, courage, prayerfulness, and so on) After preparing this list, read together today's Gospel, Matthew 5:1-12. Identify how the attitudes described in the Beatitudes are reflected in the lives of the saints and people you named. Pray together as a family a Litany of the Saints. (For example, the leader prays, "St. Elizabeth," and the children are invited to reply, "Pray for us.") Include in your list the saints and holy people you named in your discussion. Conclude by praying that your family will follow the example of these people as disciples of Jesus.

Our condolence to the bereaved Bojko (Eric, Susie & Jeffrey) family for the death of their son/brother Stefan Eric Lawrence. He died on October 10, 2020 and the funeral mass was celebrated last October 19th. May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace!

Sincere sympathies and condolence to Doug & Hailey Jensen for the death of his wife/mother Debbie Jensen. Say some prayers for the eternal repose of her soul.

During the month of November we celebrate Remembrance Day in commemoration of All the Faithful Departed particularly those who died during the wars in defense of freedom and liberty. Time for us to remember them in prayers. Consider offering special Masses for your deceased relatives and friends during this month. See Fr. Vic after Mass.

Daylight Savings Time ends November 1st. Don't forget to change your clock 1 hour back.

CATECHISM FOR A YEAR

128. Why is the Resurrection at the same time a transcendent occurrence?

While being an historical event, verifiable and attested by signs and testimonies, the Resurrection, insofar as it is the entrance of Christ's humanity into the glory of God, transcends and surpasses history as a mystery of faith. For this reason the risen Christ did not manifest himself to the world but to his disciples, making them his witnesses to the people

129. What is the condition of the risen body of Jesus?

The Resurrection of Christ was not a return to earthly life. His risen body is that which was crucified and bears the marks of his passion. However it also participates in the divine life, with the characteristics of a glorified body. Because of this the risen Jesus was utterly free to appear to his disciples how and where he wished and under various aspects.

130. How is the Resurrection the work of the Most Holy Trinity?

The Resurrection of Christ is a transcendent work of God. The three Persons act together according to what is proper to them: the Father manifests his power; the Son "takes again" the life which he freely offered (John 10:17), reuniting his soul and his body which the Spirit bring to life and glorifies.

THE POPE SPEAKS TO OUR HEARTS

We Are Not Part-Time Christians

Let us ask ourselves...what steps we are taking to ensure that faith governs the whole of our existence. We are not Christians "part-time" only at certain moments, in certain circumstances, in certain decisions; no one can be Christian in this way. We are Christian all the time! Totally! May Christ's truth, which the Holy Spirit teaches us and gives to us, always and totally affect our daily life. Let us call on him more often so that he may guide us on the path of disciples of Christ. Let us call on him everyday.

WORDS OF WISDOM

The Road of Hope a gospel from prison by Cardinal Francis Xavier Nguyen Van Thuan

Keep moving forward relentlessly; do not give up. No one follows the person who turns back.

Do not yield to lustfulness, to laziness, to selfishness. You cannot call black white, bad good, or dishonesty honesty.

Are you a person who says "yes" to everything? Do you say "yes" to many gods and a variety of moral standards? Do you have a permissive conscience that adjusts to any situation and says "yes" to passing values? What road will you take?

An elderly carpenter was ready to retire. He told his employer-contractor of his plans to leave the house-building business and live a more leisurely life with his wife, enjoying his extended family. He would miss the pay check, but he needed to retire. They could get by. The contractor was sorry to see his good worker go and asked if he could build just one more house as a favor. The carpenter said yes, but in time it was easy to see that his heart was not in his work. He resorted to shoddy workmanship and used inferior materials. It was an unfortunate way to end a dedicated career. When the carpenter finished his work the employer came to inspect the house. He handed the front-door key to the carpenter, "This is your house," he said, "My gift to you!" The carpenter was shocked! What a shame! If he had only known he was building his own house, he would have done it all so differently. So it is with us. We build our lives, a day at a time, often putting less than our best into the building. Then with a shock we realize we have to live in the house we have built. If we could do it over, we'd do it much differently. But we cannot go back. Build wisely!

A Sunday School teacher asked her little children, as they were on the way to church service, "And why is it necessary to be quiet in church?" One bright little girl replied, "Because people are sleeping."
